Marriage of Miss Ffoulke and Mr. Smith Today.

FUTURE HOME IN PHILADELPHIA

Last Night's Brides and Grooms and Attendant Festivities.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The marriage of Miss Gladys Ffoulke and Mr. Edward Chapman Smith of Glenside, Pa., took place this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Ffoulke at half-past 3 and was a charming event, at which a number of relatives and a few personal friends of the couple, notably the acquaintances of the bride, looked on with pleasure. Flowers adorned the commodious home and formed a background for the grouping of the bridal party in the tapestry gallery where the ceremony took place. Two small boys, Gardiner H. Bell and Charles M. Ffouke, jr., held white ribbons to form the aisle by which the bride and her attendants approached the officiating clergyman, Rev. John Cornell. Mr. Cornell was rector of the Episcopal church at Nice, France, during the long residence there of Mr. and Mrs. Ffoulke.

Miss Helen S. Ffoulke was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Dorothea Coggeshall, her cousin, and Miss Gwendolin Ffoulke were bridesmaids. Mr. W. Brentwood Smith was best man.

The handsome young bride wore white satin embroidered with pearls, a point lace yell and diamond ornaments, the gift of the veil and diamond ornaments, the gift of the yeii and diamond ornaments, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and white orchids. The maid of honor wore white sabin with ecru lace flower appliques and the bridesmaids white flower appliques and the bridesmaids white crepe de chine with Irish point trimmings. They carried yellow roses and orchids.

The young couple will leave late this afternoon for their wedding trip and will spend several months in New York before making their home in Philadelphia.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ffoulke, Mrs. Jane M. Ffoulke and daughters, Miss Rebecca Ffoulke, Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Smith of Philadelphia, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brentwood Smith, Miss Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Drexel Biddle and others

Miss Laura Josephine Fearson and Mr.

Miss Laura Josephine Fearson and Mr. Paul B. Gresham were married at Congress Street Methodist Church last night, where the couple were attended by a large party—Miss Fannie Fearson, the bride's sister; the Misses Mabel and Jessie Gresham of Westminister, Md., sisters of the groom, and his cousin, Miss Lucy Hains of Baltimore, as bridesmaids, and Mr. Walter Gresham, Mr. Maurice Hoffman and Mr. John O. Gheen of this city and Dr. C. C. Billings of Philadelphia, as ushers. The bride was Philadelphia, as ushers. The bride was daintily gowned in white muslin, the bodice daintily gowned in white muslin, the bodice trimmed with lace and panne velvet. Her attendants were also in white muslin and carried bridesmaid roses tied with pink tulle. The groom's father, Rev. Walter R. Gresham of Westminister, Md., a former pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Kinser, the present pastor. An informal reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fearson previous to the departure of the couple for their honey-jaunt.

A family party attended the marriage yesterday of Miss Ora Francis Lipp and Mr. Cyrus Morris, Rev. Lucien Clark officiating. The couple left immediately for a trip to Buffalo. A reception will be given Wednesday evening, October 30, at the residence of the bride's parents, 1524 14th street, where they will be at home to their friends after November 4.

Miss Ionia Kingsbury and Mr. William Miss Ionia Kingsbury and Mr. William Eddy Ferguson of Baltimore were married at Gunton Temple Memorial Church last night by Rev. Asa Fiske. Mr. Richard Ferguson was best man and Miss Elsie Ferguson maid of honor. The ushers were Mr. Percy G. Milbourne and Mr. R. L. Middleton of this city, Mr. Charles Merritt and Mr. C. L. Shanklin of Baltimore. The bride came in church with her father, Mr. Thomas P. Kingsbury, and was gowned in white liberty satin and point lace and a tulle vell. The gown of the maid of honor was of pink chiffon and her flowers pink and roses. After the ceremony the relatives joined the bridal party for a reception at the Kingsbury home, previous to the departure of the couple for a northern trip. They will reside in Baltimore.

Last night at Hamilne Church Miss Cora was given away by her father and the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Lloyd E. Coblentz, pastor of St. Paul's Re-formed Church. The bride was attended by Miss Carrie Riordan, sister of the groom, Miss Carrie Riordan, sister of the groom, while Mr. Ira E. Bayer, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride wore white organdie, with white roses in her hair, and carried bride roses tied with fluttering white ribbons. A wedding luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. James Sherwood, mother of the groom; Miss Hungerford and Mr. Arthur Norton of Washington. Mr. Riordan is a member of the staff of the Washington Post, and after a wedding journey north the young couple will reside in Washington.
